

Hank Hilty, Jr., Vice Chair

Henry (Hank) L. Hilty, Jr. is the President of the A.F. Gilmore Company, located in the Fairfax District of Los Angeles. He was appointed to this position in 1987. Although his professional career with the A.F. Gilmore Company started in 1976, Mr. Hilty has been a part of the company all of his life. His great grandfather, A.F. Gilmore, incorporated the business in 1915 and his grandfather Earl B. Gilmore (among many other Gilmore ventures) built the Original Farmers Market at 3rd and Fairfax in 1934. Today as the President, Mr. Hilty oversees all of the Company operations including its retail and office development, oil exploration, banking and the Farmers Market. In addition, Mr. Hilty serves as Chairman of the A.F. Gilmore Company, Chairman of the Gilmore Bank and Director, and President of the Earl B. Gilmore Foundation. Continuing a long family association with the Salvation Army, he serves on their Metropolitan Advisory Board among several other Salvation Army advisory boards and committees. He is involved with various other civic and cultural organizations whose interests include improving and preserving Los Angeles. Mr. Hilty resides in Van Nuys with his wife.
